

house and draws two other houses, Eger and Hingley; indicates Van Horn's house on Brown Avenue.) This Wilbur house is Dr. B. K. Wilbur of the Wilbur Chocolate people, makes the Wilbur Buds. I don't remember whether they were there at the time; I don't think so. I am not sure about that; it is too long ago to remember all those things.

Q You went out on the beach then?

A I was out on the beach during the afternoon and somewhere late in the afternoon or early in the evening there just before or just after supper I remember going over to the Eger house. At that time we cut right across a little path over here that way (indicating) and told Mrs. Eger to tell her husband William Eger better come over on the beach in the evening as there was some bluefish biting. He commuted from Philadelphia at that time; and then I went home and went out on the beach to fish, and I hadn't been there very long before Arthur Applegate came up the beach with his wife and small boy.

Q Where was he going to, I mean what direction was he moving in?

A I don't know exactly where he was fishing, but it was
